About your organisation

Please describe your organisation and the work you do and how it relates to food waste avoidance. What service/s do you provide, how do you generally work with the broader community.

About your organisation

Please tell us more about the different types of event, program or activities you run and how the proposed LFHW partnership will complement what you do?

How do you plan to integrate the LFHW brand and food waste avoidance messaging into your existing program/activity?

Previous experience

Has your organisation previously received LFHW funding or taken part in joint projects with other organisations covering any issue? If so, how does the proposed partnership build on these past results?

Target audience

LFHW has identified the following as the highest food wasters in NSW.

- 18–34 years old
- families with young children
- households with incomes over $100,000
- food businesses, including retail, hospitality, aged care and child-care sectors

How does your organisation's work currently align with these audiences?

Key life stages

To focus opportunities for action, the LFHW Partnership Program prioritises projects that engage these audience through the three key life stages of:

- leaving home for the first time
- buying your own home
- starting a family.

Do these life stages relate to your current activities and/or how might you start to target them through the LFHW partnership?

Amount requested

Up to $1,000 (ex GST) is available to Community Partners to integrate LFHW into an existing program or activity. How much funding are you seeking?
