

Super Partners Application

Love Food Hate Waste NSW (LFHW) Super Partnerships connect a high-profile NSW Government program with high profile partners. The partnership involves us working collaboratively, aligning our shared values and goals to deliver projects and activities that will reduce food waste. Projects we work on are co-designed with shared costs of delivery that may include in-kind and cash contributions.

A memorandum of understanding (MOU) based on a co-designed project plan will be developed to define the mutual responsibilities and obligations to establish the partnership.

About your organisation

Please describe your organisation and its work relating to food waste avoidance.

Do you have published Corporate Sustainability goals? If so, please provide links and references to where they align with international, national and state policies and targets, such as the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), National Food Waste Strategy and NSW Net Zero Emissions Plan.

About your organisation

Why do you want to enter into a partnership with the LFHW program? Explain how you see us working together? What do you see as the benefits of a partnership with LFHW? (Max 300 words)

Meeting program objectives

How does your organisation's strategic principles and values align with the LFHW Program objectives listed below? How will the partnership with LFHW complement what you already do?

- Make food waste avoidance a social norm by 2021
- Reduce food waste going to landfill
- Increase awareness, of the scope, scale, and impact of food waste
- Increase people's knowledge and skills to avoid food waste
- Impact behavioural change to reduce food waste

Target audience

LFHW has identified the following as the highest food wasters in NSW.

- 18–34 years old
- families with young children
- households with incomes over $100,000
- food businesses, including retail, hospitality, aged care and child-care sectors

How does your organisation's work currently align with these audiences?

Key life stages

To focus opportunities for action, the LFHW Partnership Strategy prioritises projects that engage these high food wasters through three key life stages. Please identify how we could work together through the partnership to support food waste avoidance at one or more of these key life stages?

- leaving home for the first time
- buying your own home
- starting a family

Commitment to partnership

Please confirm your organisation's commitment to a Super Partnership with LFHW by agreeing to the following:

Commit to developing a Memorandum of Understanding with the NSW Government detailing each partner's obligations

Commit to embedding food waste avoidance principles and practices into your organisation for the long term
